

Furry Fiction Showcase

Midwest FurFest 2025

Welcome to the showcase handout! I'm Shiloh Skye—writer, editor, dog. I have some awesome book recommendations in here, with plenty of info about how to get your paws on more great furry fiction. I hope you find something you like. Happy reading!

WARNING: Many of the websites, podcasts, storefronts, writers, and books described in this handout also feature adult content; this includes, but is not limited to, sexual and violent content. Persons younger than 18 years old should not explore anything featured in this handout without parent or guardian supervision.

Other Great Reads

Online Writers to Check Out!

Pascal Farful

Furaffinity: PascalFarful

Pascal's Victor Tremblay stories, about a gay lemur detective solving crimes in the 70s, have really drawn me in. His story Victor Tremblay in - Saving Wendell Olsen was featured on The Voice of Dog's Pride Month, and his story Heaven will Weigh the Heart of Stone, about a young man hoping to prove his masculinity by dueling the man he has developed feelings for, was one of my favorites from the The Heavens Within Our Grasp historical fiction anthology.

Tempe O'Kun

Furaffinity: Tempo321

Tempe O'Kun (Tempo) is a longtime furry writer known for his book series' Sixes Wild and Windfall—both of which are available at FurPlanet. His delightfully whimsical Puplift short story series, about intelligent canines giving you a how-to guide on living in space, has made several appearances on the Voice of Dog podcast. Tempo is also the staff writer at the Furry Film Burrow, a furry cultural analysis channel you can find on YouTube.

Anhedral

Furaffinity: Anhedral

Anhedral writes some of my favorite werewolf fiction, set in a world where a mysterious virus starts causing Spontaneous Adolescent Lycanthropy - in other words, 5% of human teenagers begin turning into werewolves. The optimism of this series and the way it challenges humanity captures my imagination. Anhedral's work has appeared in various anthologies, including ROAR and Werewolves Versus. He's also appeared on The Voice of Dog.

Lauren Rivers

Furaffinity: IridescenceStudios

Lauren Rivers is the author of Winterfall—a recently-released novel exploring a world that has plunged into a deadly endless winter. The novel is available on Amazon, and you can find several short stories from the Winterfall universe on the Voice of Dog podcast and on her Furaffinity. Lauren has also published the werewolf mystery novel Blue Moon, and appeared in the anthology Roar Vol. 4.

Dirt Coyote

Bluesky: @dirtcoyote.bsky.social

Dirt Coyote has written an abundance of stories that appear on the Voice of Dog podcast, where he also provides narrations for stories from other authors. He writes in a variety of genres, including LGBTQ+, Romance, Historical Fiction, and Fantasy. I highly recommend his story The Hole Inside, which is an intense and heartbreaking werewolf tale with a touching twist that really blew me away.

Rob MacWolf

Bluesky: @robmacwolf.thevoice.dog

Rob MacWolf hosts The Voice of Dog podcast, and his stories kick ass. He just released a new book called You Look Lost, Pup which is a three-part publication of some of my favorites of his road-tripping gay werewolf stories. I also highly recommend his story Sing in Me, Holy One, and Through Me, which is one of those stories that's just so hard to describe, and All Means All, about someone trying to explain ACAB to a gay cop.
